

Jong-hun Bae

Renowned for his excellence in breathing new life into the traditional repertoire, presenting new works by living composers, and charismatic stage presence, Jong-hun Bae continues to attract international attention.

His conducting posts have included Guest Assistant Conductor for the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra, Assistant Conductor for the Baltimore Opera Company, Resident Conductor for the Salt Lake Symphony, Associate Conductor for the Peabody Chamber Opera, Assistant Conductor for the Utah Lyric Opera, and others. In addition, he is currently a member of the Jury Board for the ENKOR International Music Competition in London, United Kingdom, and Jury for the Sound Espresso Global Competition in New York.

Jong-hun's concert engagements have included appearances with leading orchestras throughout Asia, Europe, and North America, among them, Leipziger Symphonieorchester, Orchestra Simfonica a Filarmonicii "Mihail Jora," Fort Wayne Philharmonic, Aurora Symphony, Gwinnett Symphony Chamber Orchestra, Utah Philharmonia, and Utah Youth Orchestras & Ensembles.

In addition, he has been invited to conduct at the important performance venues throughout the world, including Gewandhaus, Leipzig (Germany), Carnegie Hall, New York; Kimmel Center for the Performing Arts, Philadelphia (USA), Place des Arts, Montréal; National Arts Centre, Ottawa (Canada), Auditorio Nacional, México City (México), Teatro del Maggio Musicale Fiorentino, Firenze; Teatro di San Carlo, Napoli (Italy), Opéra Berlioz, Montpellier (France), and others.

Jong-hun has worked with renowned conductors such as Marin Alsop, Anton Armstrong, Andrew Constantine, Kenneth Kiesler, Gerhard Markson, Colin Metters, Jorma Panula.

He has studied at the Peabody Conservatory of Music of the Johns Hopkins University, mentored by the legendary conducting pedagogue Gustav Meier. While studying at the Peabody, he served as a Guest Assistant Conductor to Maestro Hans Graf with the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra, and Maestro Christian Badea and Maestro Oliver von Dohananyi with the Baltimore Opera Company. In addition, Jong-hun is the winner of the 2015 International Conductors Competition in Atlanta, GA.

